Academic Workshop on „United Nations Policing - Current legal and practical challenges“
30th November - 1st December

Funded by the German Foundation for Peace Research

Programme

Thursday, 30th November

From 11.30 h  Arrival and Registration
11.30 h       Lunchtime Snack
12.30 h       Welcome Remarks

12.45 h   Panel 1, The Development of International Policing

Panellists
• Judith Thorn, Justus Liebig University Giessen
• Thomas Fitschen, Federal Foreign Office, Germany

14.15 h   Coffee Break
14.30 h  Panel 2, Hopes and Expectations towards the UN Police

Panellists
- Philipp Bovensiepen, Chief Superintendent, State Office for Training, Education and Personnel of the North Rhine-Westphalia State Police
- Thilo Marauhn, Justus Liebig University Giessen

16.00 h  Coffee Break

16.15 h  Panel 3, The Use of Force in Peacekeeping Operations

Panellists
- Dieter Fleck, former Director of International Agreements and Policy of the German Ministry of Defence
- Terry D. Gill, University of Amsterdam and the Netherlands Defence Academy

20.00 h  Conference Dinner

Friday, 1st December

09.00 h  Panel 4, Policing and Human Rights

Panellists
- Ralf Allewelt, Brandenburg State Police Academy
- Dieter Kugelmann, State Data Protection and Freedom-of-Information Officer (Landesbeauftragter für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit), Rhineland-Palatinate

10.30 h  Coffee Break

10.45 h  Panel 5, Accountability and Disciplinary Measures

Panellists
- Françoise Hampson, University of Essex
- Kirsten Schmalenbach, Paris Lodron University of Salzburg

12.15 h  Lunch Break
13.15 h  Panel 6, Looking ahead – the Future of Policing in UN Peacekeeping Operations

Panellists

- Jeffrey Buenger, United Nations Police Division/Standing Police Capacity, Brindisi
- Thomas Fitschen, Federal Foreign Office, Germany
- Christian Schaller, German Institute for International and Security Affairs

14.45 h  Closing Remarks

15.00 h  End of the Workshop